

Temperature dependence of magnetization in ultrathin ferromagnetic films with perpendicular magnetic anisotropy

Contact Phone

0962401364

Abstract

We develop a theory, which explain temperature dependence of the magnetization of ultrathin Co magnetic films with perpendicular magnetic anisotropy. Our theory reasonably well describes experimental data. We investigate the transition from pure 2D system to 3D magnetic films.

Type of Book of Abstracts

Electronic

Primary authors: Dr YASTREMSKY, Ivan (Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv); Dr MAKAROV, Denis (Helmholtz-Zentrum Dresden-Rossendorf e.V., Institute of Ion Beam Physics and Materials Resea)

Presenter: Dr YASTREMSKY, Ivan (Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv)

Session Classification: Physics of Magnetism

Track Classification: Physics of Magnetism